

Orders Kohler to Rehire All Striking Men

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kohler Co. today was ordered to rehire workers there may be as many as 2,000 involved—fired six years ago during a still-continuing strike called by the United Auto Workers Union at the Wisconsin plumbing fixture firm.

The National Labor Relations Board ruled unanimously that the company prolonged the strike by unfair labor practices, including giving non-strikers a wage increase two months after the walk-out began.

One member of the five-man board expressed the opinion that the company in fact provoked the strike in the first place, but his four colleagues did not adopt that view.

By a 3-2 vote, the board also ruled that the union had engaged in "illegal" mass "belly-to-belly" picketing marked by violence outside the plant gates. This was cited in refusing to order some 77 individual strikers rehired.

The case has been one of the longest, most voluminous and most hotly contested in NLRB history.

L. Smith, executive vice president of Kohler, said 90 minutes after the ruling was announced that a court appeal had been launched. He said notice of the appeal had been filed in Chicago with the Seventh District U.S. Court of Appeals. He said in a statement:

"We think it is our duty, not only to our own interest, but in the public interest, to seek a reversal."

Desperate Convicted Slayer Escapes From State Prison, Police Search Is Spread

GRADY, Ark. (AP) — Police theorized today that a desperate convicted murderer would try to complete his escape from Cummins State Prison Farm by sloshing through the dense, swampy Arkansas River bottoms. "All the roads are blocked," state police radio operator James Green said. "If he gets out, he'll probably have to go through the bottoms."

Meanwhile officers spread their search for Melvin Lindley, 44, through most of southeast Arkansas.

"We're trying our best to get him before he gets someone else," a trooper said. "He has nothing to lose."

Lindley walked away from a work gang outside the prison yesterday. Prison officials launched an all-out search immediately and warned residents of the area that Lindley was extremely dangerous.

"Lock your doors and windows and take keys out of all vehicles," a state police bullet said.

Lindley's prison "record" dates back to 1932. He has escaped five times. Parole records show he escaped from the Oklahoma State Prison Aug. 5, 1944, while serving a life term for murder.

He has never been returned to Oklahoma to complete that term. At the time of his latest escape, Continued on Page Two

Lions Plan Bulb Sale on Monday

Once a year members of Hope Lions Club take time out from their busy schedules to sell light bulbs — they carefully package these bulbs themselves in special bags and they call on the public to buy light bulbs from them.

These are good bulbs and will give faithful service, but in addition they will do something other bulbs will not do — they will help the blind to build a new life for themselves at the Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind, which is sponsored by the Lions Clubs of Arkansas. They will pay for eye examinations, glasses and operations for children of your community.

When you buy your light bulbs from the Lions you will help them to help your community see better. The profits from these bulbs is the life blood of the Lions' sight conservation work in your community.

Members of the Hope Lions Club will be calling on local citizens Monday night of Aug. 20.

Bill Up to Pay Arkansas Soldier

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to pay James H. Presley of Jonesboro, Ark., $1,633 in retired military pay erroneously withheld by the Army, was sent to the White House after Senate passage yesterday.

Impaired hearing caused by an explosion resulted in Presley's retirement from the Army as a second Lieutenant April 28, 1944.

He later became a civilian employee of the Army, which withheld the $1,633 from his retirement pay under an act limiting an individual's pay and retirement to $5,000 yearly.

Congressional committees reported that the limitation did not apply to officers retired because of disabilities incurred in line of duty.

The Army approved the bill to pay Presley the additional money.

Costs $6,000 Year for a Family of 4

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department calculated today it costs about $6,000 a year to maintain a four-person city worker's family on a modest but adequate living level.

An actual survey of 20 cities showed costs ranging from $5,370 in Houston, Tex., to $6,567 in Chicago.

The exhaustive survey by the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics also estimated the income of such a family conservatively is $7,000 to $7,500. It said income typically outstrips budget needs by 15 to 20 per cent.

The budget is based on a family consisting of an employed husband, aged 38, a wife not employed outside the home, a daughter, aged 8, and a son aged 13, all living in a rented dwelling in a large city or its suburbs.

The survey was made in 20 cities. The budget cost for such a family was calculated for other cities as follows: Atlanta $5,642, Baltimore $5,718, Boston $6,317, Cincinnati $6,100, Cleveland $6,199, Detroit $6,072, Kansas City $5,064, Los Angeles $6,285, Minneapolis $6,101, New York $5,570, Philadelphia $5,808, Pittsburgh $6,199, Portland, Ore., $6,222, St. Louis $6,266, San Francisco, $6,304, Scranton $5,693, Seattle $6,562, and Washington, D.C., $6,147.

To make the survey, the bureau determined the needs of such families in all the cities, balancing them with scientific studies of nutritional needs and other family requirements. It compiled them into a typical budget for such a family. Then it went out and priced the items in all the cities.

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Premier Patrice Lumumba whose government only Monday dropped its demand for revision of United Nations operations in the Congo, declared today U. N. forces should get out when Belgium's soldiers leave.

"We will assure order with our own troops and police," Lumumba told a hastily called news conference. "We don't want to replace the Belgian military occupation with a United Nations occupation."

AFL CIO Calls on Members to Go Democratic

WASHINGTON (AP)—The AFL-CIO Executive Council today endorsed the Democratic ticket and recommended that the 14-million member federation support it.

The Council proposed that the federation's General Board, meeting this afternoon, ratify the endorsement. This was regarded as a certainty.

Only 18 members of the 20-man Executive Council were present for the endorsement action.

One dissenting vote was cast by A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters.

"The Negro union chief had said earlier that there was 'not enough difference' between Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy and Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon to justify choosing between them."

Most of the Council absentees were busy with duties in other cities, some in Europe.

The General Board, meeting this afternoon, is composed of representatives of all the AFL-CIO's 135 unions.

Prior to the meeting, a suggestion of something less than enthusiastic solidarity came from Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union, when reporters asked how he feels about Kennedy.

"I am not pleased with him," Curran replied. "I never have been pleased with him, and I doubt I will ever be pleased with him."

Then, referring to Nixon, the Republican choice, Curran added: "I am even less pleased with the other guy."

Recommendations of the 20-member federation Executive Council will be submitted for consideration by the AFL-CIO General Board, comprised of Representatives of all 135 unions, later today.

The union leaders have been generally enthusiastic, although with some exceptions, about Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts as Democratic presidential nominee. They have not been so enthusiastic about Kennedy's running mate, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, whom they opposed at the convention in Los Angeles.

Recently, however, Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers, and David J. McDonald, United Steel Workers president, made pilgrimages to Kennedy's summer place at Hyannis Port, Mass., and came away completely favoring, they said, the Kennedy-Johnson ticket.

Car Bumping Ends in a Beating

A charge of disturbing the peace was filed against Andy Malone, Longview, Texas, last night following an incident on Highway 67 which resulted in a fight.

Jerry Cobb, about 21, Hope, was taken to a local hospital for treatment following a fight with Malone, according to police.

City Police Chief Jack Brown said Malone told this story:

"The Texan was driving along the Highway when the Cobb car passed and slowed in front of me. Malone passed and the Cobb car passed on the wrong side and sprayed gravel, then slowed down then the Cobb car came up behind the Malone car and bumped it. Malone stopped and bent up Cobb while several other local boys in the Cobb car watched."

Malone then got into his car and went on his way. Cobb was taken to a local hospital for treatment. A complaint was made and Malone was picked up by State Police at Arkadelphia and returned to Hope where he posted bond.

Police said Malone is an SMU football player, weighs 220 pound and is 20 years old. The officers said Malone vowed he would appear in court here next Monday to fight the charge.

Sierra Fire Now Under Control

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Fire fighters today predicted swift victory over a 5½-million-dollar forest fire that has blackened 35,000 acres of high Sierra timber lands about 50 miles west of here in the past six days.

Some 3,200 men backed by battle bombing planes and bulldozers hoped to ring the Donner Ridge fire and then switch to the offensive.

A U.S. Forest Service spokesman said, "We've been able to handle these winds (up to 35 miles an hour) and bring our lines around about 90 per cent of the fire. It looks pretty favorable right now. We have even begun to send some crews home."

Full control of the fire may take another day, the spokesman added.

The blaze has consumed an estimated 150 million board feet of lumber worth about $3,325,000. Fire-fighting costs and other damage were estimated at about two million dollars additional.

Sixty miles southwest of the Donner fire, a blaze running north from Foresthill, Calif., was expected to be contained by mid-morning. It has consumed 34,000 acres.

Civil Workers Office Set Up in L. R.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — George T. Andrews of Little Rock, a civilian worker with the Corps of Engineers, will be the key civilian in the Titan II construction office here.

Col. A. M. Jacoby, district Army Engineer, said yesterday Andrews will be principal civilian assistant to the area Engineer.

Andrews has spent 31 years with the Engineers, most of the time in the Little Rock and Memphis districts.

The area office will be opened early in October at the U.S. Air Force Base and will have about 100 civilian employees.

Eighteen Titan II missile launching sites will be built in mid Arkansas north of the base. Jacoby described the facilities in detail in a speech to a civic club here yesterday.

The main underground structure of each launcher will be a concrete silo 105 feet deep and 60 feet in diameter. This will be covered by a metal door which rolls back to clear the way for launching.

Generators, pumps and air conditioning machines will be housed inside the silos.

The missile launching tube will stand in the middle of the silo. Jacoby said the noise of the rocket engines will be so loud at take-off that the missile tube will be covered with a acoustic material to reduce the noise level. Otherwise, he said, the vibration might damage the missile.

Missiles will be kept fueled at all times. The fuel will be filtered periodically to guard against dusts that might gum up rocket engines.

Measure Okays $500,000 for Start of Dam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate House conferees, in drafting a compromise public works appropriations bill, retained the bulk of the Arkansas River projects as has been approved in the Senate version.

"I only lost two out of seven projects," said Sen. John M. McClellan (D-Ark.), member of the committee.

Projects which were eliminated — both of which had been added by the Senate — were $150,000 to initiate planning on the Ouachita River, 9-foot navigation channel and $200,000 to plan Arkansas River navigation locks and dams.

In addition, the committee cut in half a $4,000,000 item McClellan had put in the bill for Arkansas River bank stabilization work. The $2,000,000 retained is in addition to $5,000,000 for emergency bank stabilization work approved by both branches.

Arkansas projects retained also include:

Arkansas River general studies $381,000; Beaver Reservoir $2,000,000; Bull Shoals power units $3,300,000; Dardouille Lock and Dam $6,100,000; De Grey Reservoir $300,000 planning; Gilliam Reservoir $100,000 planning; Greys Ferry Reservoir $14,143,000; McKinney Bayou and Barkman Creek $600,000; Millwood Reservoir $500,000; Red River at Caddo Gap City $2,000,000; Red River levees below Denison Dam $700,000.

While the conferees cut the lower Mississippi River amount from $74,896,000 to $71,896,000, it left virtually unchanged the Arkansas items in that project.

The only change, McClellan said, was to cut from $1,615,000 to $1,140,000 the allowance for the Tensas-Baton Rouge project. Unchanged was $600,000 for the lower Arkansas. McClellan had increased both these amounts from the amounts approved by the House.

Also included in the lower Mississippi project is $1,000,000 for the St. Francis Basin and $100,000 for the lower White River.

The committee also approved $500,000 for the Broken Bow Dam and $150,000 planning for the Pine Creek Reservoir, both in Oklahoma and both part of the Red River flood control program.

It left unchanged those Arkansas River projects in Oklahoma: Eufaula Reservoir 20,700,000; Keystone Reservoir 17,400,000; Oologah Reservoir $3,700,000.

view of the findings by a higher authority. This was done by Smith also said he did not expect any change in the status of the plant until court decisions are final. There was no reaction by token pickets at the plant to the ruling. Only a few pickets have been stationed at the plant for the past two years.

The case first came before the NLRB in July 1954. One reason for the long lapse of time before today's decision is that both parties entered voluminous evidence and got the case reopened from time to time.

"The first report made by an examiner was a recommendation that the case be dismissed on technicality. The NLRB in 1956 rejected this and ordered hearings. After NLRB hearings, the dispute came under scrutiny of a Senate investigating committee. Some of the matters developed by the senators led to a reopening of the NLRB hearings.

"The NLRB said it had no estimate of the number of Kohler strikers eligible under today's ruling to apply for immediate reinstatement to their jobs."

But Don Rand, a UAW staff representative who was a member of the union's Local 233 strike committee when the strike began April 5, 1954, said a recent union survey showed there are still some 2,000 Kohler strikers in the Sheboygan area now eligible for reinstatement. But, he said, many are working at other jobs and may not apply.

Under the NLRB order, those eligible for reinstatement must be given jobs even if it requires dismissal of workers who were hired to replace them.

George A. Downing, NLRB trial examiner, had described the strike in an earlier report on the case as a "struggle between labor's irascible force and management's immovable object," as well as a labor dispute "more typical of a bygone era."

The five-man NLRB unanimously directed the Kohler Co. to bargain collectively with UAW Local 833.

Four of the five board members held that what began as an economic strike, after a breakdown in contract negotiations, was converted by Kohler into an unfair labor practice strike on June 1, 1954, by an unlawful wage increase to non-strikers.

The fifth NLRB member, Joseph A. Jenkins, said the strike should be considered an unfair labor practice walkout from its inception. He said the company had exhibited "fixed intent to precipitate a situation which would enable it to rid itself of the union."

Unlike the other four NLRB members, Jenkins said Kohler caused the strike by illegal practices.

Lindley was serving a seven-year term for carnal abuse and grand larceny from Marianna, Ark. He was sentenced in 1958.

A statewide alert went out for Lindley but police believed he was in the general vicinity of the prison, 70 miles southeast of Little Rock.

"A motorist told officers yesterday he saw a man clad in a white prison uniform running across a prison field, heading toward the Arkansas River.

Bloodhounds were taken into the river bottoms last night but their keepers, prison trustees, reported no sign of Lindley.

"Police in Pine Bluff, Ark., 34 miles northwest, got a report a man was trying to steal a car late last night. They chased him into woods, and later arrested a man walking along a rural road, but said he was not Lindley.

"Sheriff S. C. Langston of Marianna, who arrested Lindley three times on the carnal abuse and larceny charges, called the convict an escape artist.

After his escape from the Oklahoma prison where he was serving the life term, Langston said he was free 13 years before being arrested in Marianna on a rape charge. He escaped from Marianna officers twice, once by making keys to the jail from metal stripping on a table in his cell.

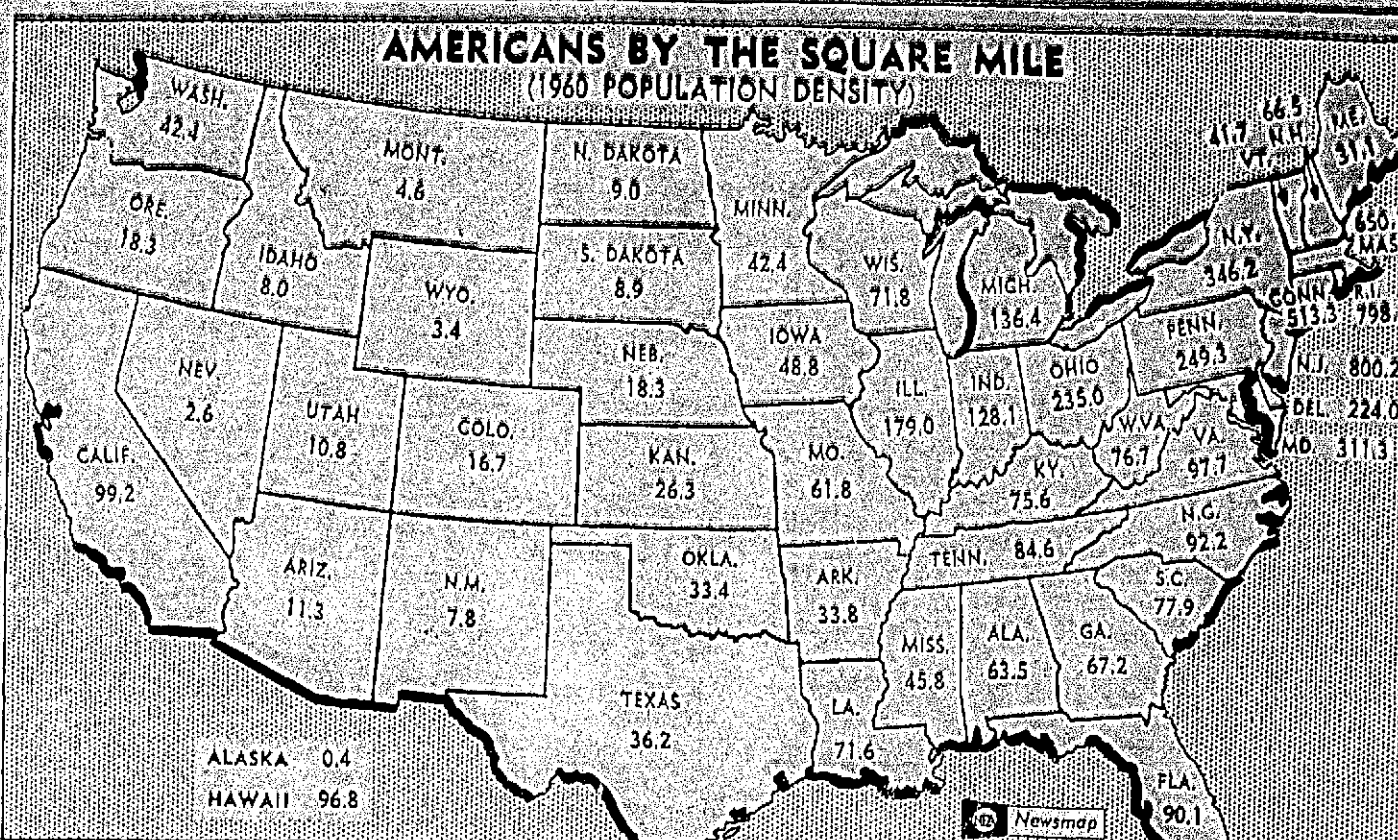

"He was caught the first time in Memphis, Tenn., and the second time in Springfield, Mo. The charge was reduced to carnal abuse and he was sentenced to four years and to three more years on larceny charges arising from the theft of a truck on one of his flights.

"In 1932, Lindley escaped from the Oklahoma State Prison while

HOW WE STACK UP—Although America's population increased by some 28 million between 1950 and 1960, the density decreased slightly. The average is now 50.4 persons per square mile, down from 50.7. Cause was the admission of Alaska with its great expanse of empty land. Figures for the states shown in Newsmag are found by dividing a state's population by its square miles of area. New Jersey is at the top with 800.2 and Alaska at the bottom with one person for each 2 1/2 square miles. Alaska's population is only 224,386. The newest state, Hawaii, with a population of 620,385, has a density of 96.8, almost double the national average. New York continues to lead in total population (16,596,507).

Nearly one American in six lives in one of the nation's 25 largest cities shown on the map. They have a combined population of some 30,000,000. That is nearly 17 per cent of the 179,000,000 national population. The map shows the cities which scored the biggest advances in rank during the 1950-60 decade. Two Texas cities were strong gainers: Houston up from 14th place to 6th and Dallas from 22nd to 14th. San Diego, Calif., 31st in 1950, climbed to 19th.

Mississippi Gov. Cancels Speaking

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval B. Faubus said today that Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi had cancelled a scheduled address to the Capital Citizens Council.

Faubus was to have introduced Barnett at a dinner meeting of the segregationist organization Sept. 13.

The governor told his news conference he talked with Barnett by telephone yesterday, and Barnett advised him he could not fill the engagement into his schedule.

Barnett's appearance as main speaker for the dinner had been publicized by Dr. Malcolm G. Taylor, president of the Citizens Council. Taylor praised Barnett as a staunch advocate of independent presidential elections.

Faubus quoted Barnett as saying he would like to make the appearance in Little Rock during the week of Sept. 25, when he will be in Arkansas to attend a meeting of the Southern Governors' Conference in Hot Springs.

Taylor said he had not received word of the cancellation from Barnett or anyone else. He declined to say whether the $10-a-plate dinner would be held in the absence of Barnett.

Barnett has refused to back either national party because of his resentment over civil rights plank in the platforms. His stand for independent elections was approved at a recent meeting of the Mississippi Democratic State Convention, which voted to put a slate of pledged electors on the Nov. 3 general election ballot.

Rheumatic Like Pains May Be Nerve Pressure

Some of the oldsters recall that grandpa always knew when a storm was approaching or when there was to be a weather change because the "rheumatism" in his knee would act up. Actually, weather changes do stir up, or bring out rheumatic like pains.

Pains of this nature however, can only manifest themselves in areas where there has been some form of nerve damage either recent or in the far distant past. The nerve damage could have been produced by direct injury or by the subluxation of one or more vertebrae of the spine causing nerve pressure. Other factors which might help to bring on pains of this type are unusual changes of diet or extreme fatigue.

Chiropractic adjustments relieve nerve pressures and the resulting rheumatic-like pains whether they be in the joints, neck or back.

DOROTHY DIX
Coy Widow Keeps
Widower Guessing

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

I am a widower 61 years old. Friends tell me I look younger. Four months ago I met a widow 54, who had lost her husband about the same time I lost my wife. She was very homesick.

I have lately been ailing with a sore foot. She said that would not stop us from getting married. She is the type that gets familiar with men. I promised her that if we married she would not have to work. I would give her everything.

Sometimes she expresses love for me but the very next day is distant. She turns hot and cold. I am desperately in love with her. What shall I do? —Confused Man.

Dear Confused Man: Play her game. Try the hard-to-get approach. Treat her rough. Create the impression that you have to fight the girls off and she'll be yours forevermore.

Dear Helen:

I've been going with a guy two years and now we broke up. He gave me a watch, record-player and a set of stainless steel pots and pans. I gave him expensive gifts and I don't want them back. But he called and asked me to return his gifts. Should I? —Anxious.

Dear Anxious: If he's petty enough to play Indiana Jones, send his merchandise back. Don't descend to his level by demanding yours.

Dear Helen:

I find your column very helpful. My problem is nervousness. When I become nervous or excited I cannot control my speech. Sometimes I cannot say a word. The handiwork is very embarrassing. When I'm relaxed my speech is clear and exact but in front of a group of people or if about to face an important meeting, I stammer. How can I overcome this defect? —Bill (Speechless).

Dear Bill (Speechless): From what you write, your stammering appears to be caused by stage fright. The best cure for that is repeated appearances before captive audiences. In other words, join a public speaking class. I don't stammer but I did suffer from stage fright. A course with Dale Carnegie cured me. While there I heard many who, once "stuttered," speak easily and without hesitancy before a roomful of people.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her, care of this newspaper. Write for leaflet, Broken Romances.

Right Group to Probe La. Complaints

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The U. S. Civil Rights Commission will resume its inquiry into complaints about denial of voting rights to Louisiana Negroes in New Orleans Sept. 27-28.

The hearing will be a resumption of activities halted last year when a federal district judge enjoined the commission from proceeding with a hearing scheduled to start in Shreveport July 13, 1959.

The U. S. Supreme Court cleared the way for resumption of the hearings by ruling the commission had authority to promulgate regulations that deny persons being investigated the right to confront their accusers and deny the right of cross-examination.

The commission has refused to say how many complaints are involved in its probe. Last month the number was described as running into the dozens and involving a number of the state's parishes.

Meanwhile, the Justice Department asked U. S. District Court at Shreveport to order voter registrars in east Carroll and Ouachita Parishes to make available records so it can check charges of discrimination against Negroes.

The department yesterday invoked a section of the 1960 Civil Rights Act permitting a federal district court to compel production of the records.

Requests by FBI agents to look at records in the two parishes previously had been refused.

Students Say U. S. Against Fund Proposal

NEW YORK (AP)—The African American Students' Foundation says the State Department opposed the short-term proposal to supply funds to 250 Africans in this country.

William X. Scheinman, foundation vice president, said the department report implied that the government had been willing all along to help the project if certain conditions were met. Added Scheinman:

"It is completely untrue that the State Department laid down any conditions to us. They were opposed to us. They always opposed the project."

The foundation accepted an offer from Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation of $100,000 to pay the transportation costs. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), Democratic presidential nominee, is a trustee of that foundation.

Last Thursday Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) said that Kennedy had "outraged" the state department for the "blatant political purposes."

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) said the State Department finally agreed to pay for the transportation on what it considered to be "orders" from Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The Kennedy Foundation has said it assumed complete responsibility for the transportation costs on Aug. 10 after other foundations had declined to take part in the program.

Signal Given to Buy Base Property

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Army engineers have been given the green light for acquisition of property on which 18 Titan missile launchers will be constructed.

Col. A. M. Jacoby, district engineer, said he received confirmation of an acquisition order via telephone yesterday.

Negotiations with property owners are expected to be in full swing the first part of the month.

All of the underground site type launchers will be within an area running from near Morrison to near Seney and north of the Little Rock Air Force Base. The sites were pinpointed recently.

Engineers said the latest computations showed that 28 acres would be needed for each site, 10 to be acquired in fee and 18 in easement. Easements would be for access roads and work areas.

Orioles Just a Game Shy of the Yanks

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Baltimore Orioles, a joke choice for the pennant in the spring, are just a game shy of the top today, ready to take over if the New York Yankees can't make it through a make-or-break weekend in the American League race.

The Orioles beat Detroit 7-3 Thursday night and took sole possession of second place. Chuck Estrada pitched a five-hitter, and Glen Triandos hit his second grand-slam home run of the week.

New York and the defending champion Chicago White Sox, who fell out of a second-place tie, were idle.

Washington took over fourth place, whipping Kansas City 9-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Chuck Stobbs and Ray Moore, after Boston dropped Cleveland to fifth by slugging the Indians 10-7.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs knocked off Pittsburgh 2-1 on a ninth-inning home run by pitcher Glen Hobbie, and trimmed the Pirates' huge over second place Milwaukee to 6 games. The Braves beat Los Angeles 4-2. San Francisco rapped Cincinnati 8-5 in the only other game scheduled.

Triandos, troubled by injury most of the season, cracked a 3-3 tie and triggered a six-run eighth-inning for the Orioles against right-hander Frank Lary (11-13). It was the fifth slam of Triandos' career.

A couple of guys who won't quit, Ted Williams and Vic Wertz, did it for the Red Sox. Williams, five days shy of his 42nd birthday, drove in three runs, two with his 24th home run, the 516th of his career, in the third inning. Then Wertz boomed the Sox from behind with a pinch-hit grand slam in the fourth off loser Don Newcombe (1-3).

The Senators, nursing a 1-0 lead, broke twice for eight runs in the seventh against the A's. Five walks, a hit batter and five single did it for the Senators.

An American insurance agent reported on a recent trip to Russia. I thought you'd be interested in what he had to say about auto insurance in the USSR.

"Of the approx. 2,000,000 automobiles in the Soviet Union, more than half are owned by the Government."

"Automobile insurance rates are very low because Bodily Injury and Property Damage Insurance are rarely carried."

"An automobile accident in Russia is a very serious thing for the motorist. Severe penalties are imposed when the local claims investigator determines that there is negligence involved. Heavy fines or jail sentences are almost automatic."

Contrast that to the United States, with over 60,000,000 autos, and proportionately few cars government owned. Seldom do heavy fines or jail sentences follow an auto accident.

Instead, auto insurance becomes a car owner's most valuable asset — a bulwark against heavy financial loss. And while all of us would rather not be damaged by another auto, still a sizable cash settlement for the damages seems a better system than throwing the other driver in jail.

May we check the "Adequacy" of your auto insurance?

U. S. Prestige in Swimming Is Upheld

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

ROME (AP)—America's Chris Von Saltza, blonde teen-age threat to Australian women swimmers, smashed the Olympic 100-meter freestyle record today as the 17th Olympic Games opened their first full day under a broiling sun.

Miss Von Saltza led the advance of all six American swimmers, who saw action in the day's events as she churned the 100 meters in 1:01.9, breaking the record of 1:02 set by Australia's Dawn Fraser at Melbourne in 1956.

Miss Fraser, the defending champion and world record holder, won her heat today in 1:02.1 and advanced, along with Miss Von Saltza and Caroline Wood of Portland, Ore., to Saturday night's semifinals.

Miss Von Saltza, of Saratoga, Calif., 16, and Miss Wood, 14, shared the U.S. honors with two other young girls and a pair of powerful college boys.

Patty Kempner, 17, and Anne Warner, 15, gained the Saturday night finals of the women's 200-meter breaststroke, and Lance Larson of the University of California and Bruce Hunter of Harvard reached the men's 100-meter freestyle semifinals slated for tonight.

Miss Von Saltza is considered the prime threat to Miss Fraser and 16-year-old Ilsa Konrads, another Aussie, who also qualified with a heat victory.

Host Italy won the first gold medal of the games. The hard-riding Italian cyclist captured heat victories. Devitt did 58 flat the 1,000-kilometer (62-mile) road time trial. Germany was second.

surprised for a third place bronze medal. The United States was a strong 11th in the 32-team field.

Russia, expected to provide the strongest challenge to the United States in basketball, defeated Mexico 86-49. The United States meets Italy at night in another first round game.

Poland also won in basketball. Pakistan was victorious in field hockey and France and Romania took water polo matches.

Featherweight Lee Allen of Portland, Ore., won the opening Greco-Roman wrestling bout.

In the opening equestrian event of the modern pentathlon, George Lambert of Sioux City, Iowa, was second in the individual standings, but Mexico held the team lead. The United States was fourth.

The first Olympic record to fall came in the women's swimming when powerful Wilfrud Lrselman of Germany won the third of four heats in 2:52. The old standard was 2:53.1, by Ursula Happe of Germany at Melbourne in 1956.

Miss Kempner of Beverly Hills, Calif., was third to the German Von Saltza and Caroline Wood of Portland, Ore., to Saturday night's semifinals.

Miss Warner, 15, of Menlo Park, Calif., was second in the final heat to veteran Dutch competitor, Ada Den Haan. Miss Warner's time was 2:56.3 against the winning clocking of 2:54.

Over-all, Miss Kempner's time was sixth best and Miss Warner's eighth and last in the field that will go on Saturday night's final. Larson, a 20-year-old from El Monte, Calif., led the men's 100-meter qualifiers in 55.7 seconds. He won the seventh and final freestyle semifinals slated for tonight.

Pirates Lead Whittled by Del Crandall

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Del Crandall, a catcher who hadn't hit a home run with a man on base all season, and Glen Hobbie, a pitcher who hadn't hit a home run at all, have whittled Pittsburgh's National League lead to 6½ games once more.

After swatting 16 solo home runs, Crandall connected for a two-run shot that clinched a 4-2 victory for second-place Milwaukee at Los Angeles Thursday night.

The Chicago Cubs trimmed the Pirates 2-1 on Hobbie's two-out homer in the ninth, his first in a four-year major league career.

San Francisco defeated Cincinnati 8-5 in the only other NL game scheduled.

In the American League, Baltimore ripped Detroit 9-3 and moved within one game of the idle first-place New York Yankees, Washington walloped Kansas City 9-0, and Boston belted Cleveland 10-7.

Crandall's home run triggered a three-run third for the Braves at Los Angeles against southpaw Sandy Koufax (6-10) while the Dodgers seemed headed for their fifth shutout defeat in 10 games. Right-hander Joey Jay had the champs blanked on four hits until the ninth, then needed Don McMahon's strikeout relief for his fifth victory in 11 decisions.

Hobbie's home run, breaking a 1-1 tie, gave the Cubs their first victory over Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell since April 15, 1958. The big lefty, who had beaten them 10 times in that span, also was tagged for Ernie Banks' 36th home run, in the third inning, while dropping his second in a row for a 9-7 record.

An inside-the-park home run by Willie Mays with the bases loaded capped a seven-run second inning for the Giants against southpaw Claude Osteen (0-1).

A Red-White Game Planned Saturday Night

By JIMMY JONES JR.

There will be a Red-White scrimmage game at Hammond stadium tomorrow night at 8 p.m. Coach John Pierce will direct the practice session.

"I would like to see the town people come out and support the team. We would really appreciate it, and I am sure it would help the attitude of the team," said Pierce.

Admission to the game will be 25 cents for students, and 50 cents for adults. All proceeds will be spent for the team supplies.

"They looked pretty good, especially Joe Duke, Jimmy Lloyd, Curtis Churchwell, Tommy Jones and Junior McNall. David Porterfield is a promising sophomore, and is showing a lot of hustle," Pierce said. The coach was referring to the Thursday morning practice session.

The Bobcats have spent most of this week on fundamentals, and will start on the timing and running of plays next week. The coach expressed a wish that more boys would try out for the team.

"Time is up. We have a game next week, and the boys still don't realize that," said Pierce.

DRINKING DRIVERS DIE—Grimly humorous cartoon traces an all-too-familiar pattern for many of America's drivers. For example, alcohol was a factor in three-fourths of the single-vehicle fatal accidents studied in an eight-year project of the New York Driver Research Center. Much difficult summer driving lies ahead. Heat, congestion and fatigue are enough. Don't add alcohol. Cartoon courtesy of "The Dishonor Roll."

Missile Set Off Under Water

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A "Polaris" missile has made a first and "highly successful" blastoff from under water—under its own power.
The fleet submarine missile has previously been shot from under water by compressed air, then ignited in the air.
The Navy announced that a modified Polaris was ignited for the first time Wednesday under the sea. It was fired from a tube at the Navy's test facility at San Clemente Island.

U. S. Cagers Expected to Win Easily

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ROME (AP)—The powerful United States basketball team, overwhelming favorite to win a sixth straight Olympic title, may be below par physically tonight when it meets Italy in its opening game.

Coach Pete Newell said Allen Kelley, of the Peoria (Ill.) NBL team, may miss a few games because of a leg injury. And while 6-8 Jerry Lucas, the Ohio State All-American, has recovered from a foot injury it's uncertain whether he'll start.

The other eight players, including All-American Oscar Robertson from Cincinnati and Jerry West of West Virginia, are in good shape.

Newell says the team "is still not as well organized as I'd like, but is in good playing condition and ready to go. We should reach our peak during the competition."

Eight games will be played today in the opening of the three-day first elimination round, the schedule started with Hungary downing Japan 93-60.

The United States-Italy game goes on at 8:30 p.m. EST.

The 16 teams in the tournament have been split into four groups, with the top teams at Melbourne seeded into each of the groups. Two teams from each group advance to a semifinal round of eight teams. Then four more go into the final round, if form holds, the championship round should be a struggle between the United States and Russia.

Carrier Killed Walking on Road

CORNING, Ark. (AP)—A 12-year-old newspaper carrier boy walking along Highway 67 was hit by a car and killed last night at the north edge of Corning.
The victim was Larry Wolridge, son of Mrs. Veda Cockran. The boy had just finished his newspaper run and was en route with two friends to a theater. He failed to hear the warning shouts of the two friends, walking single file behind him. They heard the car hit gravel on the shoulder and jumped out of the way in time.
The driver of the car was Mrs. Hump Gux of Corning, employee of a cafe.

Queen Mary Sails After Two Weeks

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—The liner Queen Mary sailed for New York today after being stuck two weeks in Southampton by a wildcat strike of British seamen. The liner missed one round trip to New York.
The liner sailed with a full crew and 1,025 passengers. She will pick up another 815 passengers at Cherbourg. The strike, which has persisted in Liverpool and in ports on the northeast coast.

Fact Finding Drive

DAKAR, Senegal (AP)—W. Averell Harriman arrived in Senegal today to start an African fact-finding tour for Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee.

Captain's Death Is Confirmed

HAVANA (AP)—A Cuban army captain among a group of anti-Castro plotters was killed in the same scuffle in which a Spanish Jesuit priest was wounded last week, according to an unconfirmed report today.

This version said a secret agent of Prime Minister Fidel Castro infiltrated the plotters, who were planning to blow up an army munitions dump.

The captain produced a pistol and tried to arrest them but was shot to death in the resulting move, the reports said. Neither the government nor Roman Catholic authorities would confirm this.

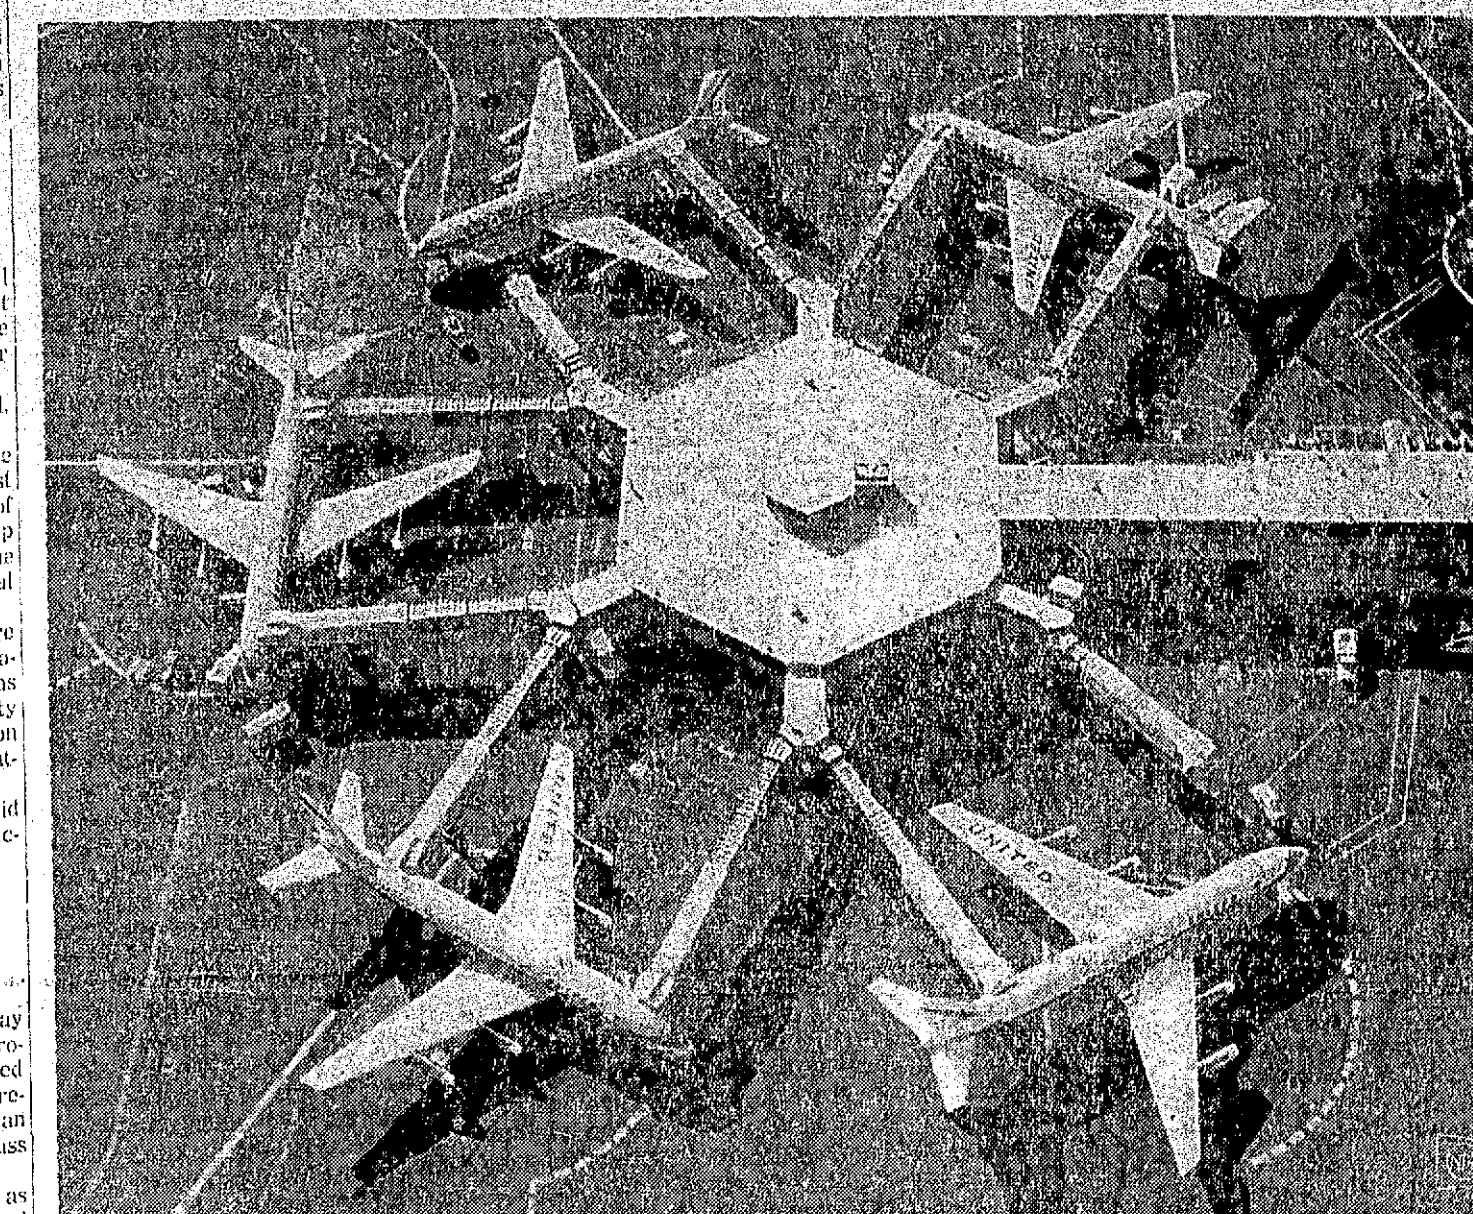

The exact part played by the priest, the Rev. Marcel Bedoya, was not clear. The original account last Monday was that he was shot in the leg and arrested while trying to shield some youths the police had been seeking.

No public charges have been made against the priest or the youths seized with him. Indications are that the government wants to hush up the case until a conference of hemisphere foreign ministers ends in Costa Rica.

Another Roman Catholic priest was prevented from saying Mass under threat of death by pro-communist squads in the Las Villas province port of Isabela de Sagua recently, according to reports from there.

THE GOOD EARTH—Mighty farm machines thunder through nearly all America's wheat fields at harvest time. But reaping the grain is still a picturesque horse-and-wagon job on one spread near Halstead, Kan. Farmer Bud Westerman (pitching wheat atop the wagon) is one of the last farmers in the area to cut wheat and harvest it the old-fashioned way.

JET AGE PINWHEEL—Five DC-8 jetliners form a symmetrical pattern around concourse projecting from United Air Lines terminal at San Francisco International Airport. The connecting jetways to the planes automatically extend and retract.

Pacifists Invade Testing Area

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—A small group of pacifists in a rowboat today invaded the property of the builders of Polaris-firing nuclear submarines.

They were met with peaceful but effective resistance.

Four members of the Committee for Nonviolent Action, a pacifist group opposed to construction of the Polaris submarines, tied up their rowboat at a dock of the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp.

The submarine builders were prepared for the heralded invasion. Each of the pacifists was greeted by two waiting security guards, were placed in station wagons and briskly ushered outside the main gate.

Officials at Electric Boat said they would take no further action against the demonstrators.

Pro-Red Groups Restrain Priest

HAVANA (AP)—Reports today from Isabela de Sagua say pro-Communist Cuban youths invaded that Las Villas province port recently and prevented a Roman Catholic priest from saying Mass under pain of death.

The invaders were described as part of a group that clashed earlier with members of the Young Catholic Workers Organization in Cagua la Grande, causing injury to seven Catholic youths.

Church sources said pro-Communist youths armed with pistols and machetes had provoked a disorder outside the Isabela de Sagua Church.

Utility Official Dies at 72

NEW YORK (AP)—James P. Fogarty, 72, retired president of the former North American Co., a public utility holding company, died in Polytechnic Hospital today after a short illness.

Fogarty began as stenographer for the company in 1902 and rose through various positions until he was made president in 1934. He served in that capacity until 1939.

He was chairman of the Executive and Finance Committee from 1939 to 1949.

Fogarty also had served on the Business Advisory Council of the U.S. Department of Commerce.

The tallest building in the United States, outside New York City, is Cleveland's 52-story Terminal Tower. It is 700 feet high.

Jerry Lewis to Quit Television

NEW YORK (AP)—Comedian Jerry Lewis says he is quitting television so he can devote all his time "to the most important contract in my life—motion pictures." Says Lewis: "It is distressing to think that you can put a ton of yourself into a TV show and people out there can walk out. A film is foreverness, TV for a moment."

Lewis made the comment Wednesday after disclosing that his contract with the National Broadcasting Co. for six special programs this season had been cancelled. NBC made no comment beyond confirming that the contract had been ended.

Needed More Than Just Signature

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—A Detroit newspaper boy complained he needed more than a signature for credit.

Denny J. Jacobs, 18, was selling souvenir newspapers to VWF conventioners Wednesday when he stopped a man in a hurry. The prospect said he would be right back as soon as he had made a speech, and rushed into a auditorium.

The man did come back and sign the application blank. Then he handed Denny a pen and whisked away, saying, "Don't forget to send those papers."

Printed on the pen was "Vice President Richard M. Nixon."

Unimpressed, Denny simply heaved. "He forgot to give me the money."

This Marriage Pain in Neck

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Marriage for Robert and Constance Ammon has been a pain in the neck.

"It wasn't always that way, of course; at least not for the first three hours after their wedding last Saturday in nearby Green Tree."

But while they were driving to Ocean City, N.J., for a honeymoon, their car was rammed by another.

Both Robert, 20, and his 18-year-old bride suffered pulled neck muscles. They have been in traction ever since at Lancaster General Hospital—in rooms across the hall from each other. They'll probably be discharged next week.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—U.S. Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, and U.S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, his running mate, will make a two-hour airport political appearance here Sept. 3 en route to opening their campaigns in earnest in Hawaii and Alaska.

San Francisco Democrats have announced plans to set up an open air auditorium at International Airport for the candidates' use. Kennedy will go on to Alaska and Johnson to Hawaii.

Ships Swap Fire

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—The South Korean navy announced today that one of its patrol boats exchanged gunfire with a ship believed out of Communist North Korea Wednesday night in the Yellow Sea. The South Korean craft said there was an explosion in the hull of the unidentified ship, but dense fog prevented determining whether it sank or got away.

RED PARTY LINE—That great American invention—the chorus line—has been adopted in Russia where these 30 Russians girls cavort in the open-air theater of Moscow's Gorky Park. Their number is called "Heroines of Socialist Labor" in a U.S.-style revue titled "Rainbow." They're overdressed by Las Vegas standards.

THE GANG'S ALL HERE—Twenty-three years elapsed between these photographs of the movies' famed Dead End Kids. Top, from left, Hunz Hall, Billy Halop, Bernard Punsley, Bobby Jordan and Leo Gorcey shot to fame in the 1937 movie of New York's slums, "Dead End." They went on to star through years of assorted films, many of which are still popular on TV. They got together in Hollywood, Calif., recently, bottom. Left to right are Punsley, Gorcey, Jordan, Hall and Halop. All except Punsley, a Redondo Beach, Calif., physician, do occasional parts in films, TV or nightclubs. They were on a television show together.

Negro Teachers Not Planned

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—No Negro teachers will be assigned to previously all white schools if integration begins in the Houston Independent School District next month, Richard Jones, personnel director, said today.

Jones pointed out that U.S. District Judge Ben C. Connally's grade-a-year integration order does not require that certain teachers be assigned to certain schools.

"And we're not going to place a Negro teacher in a school that has been operated as a white school," Jones said.

Connally's order directing that the first grade be integrated next month has been appealed. The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans, La., is expected to rule Friday or Monday on a school board motion for a stay of execution that would delay Connally's order until action can be taken on the appeal.

Texas Court Asked for School Ruling

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar has asked the state attorney general whether Houston can comply with a federal court order to desegregate public schools and still remain accredited and receive state aid.

Federal District Court here on Aug. 12 ordered desegregation in the first grade. Joe H. Reynolds, attorney for the Houston independent school district board of trustees, asked Edgar to request clarification of a state law designed to slow down school integration.

The law, which opponents have claimed is unconstitutional, has never been tested. It forbids distribution of state aid funds to districts which integrate without approval of the district's voters.

Candidate Lists $385 Expenses

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—J. T. Gunter of Austin, apparent loser in the runoff for state senator from the 19th District, has listed campaign expenses of $385.

Gunter filed a statement with Secretary of State C. G. Hall yesterday.

Incumbent Jerry J. Sereeton of Gunter when a delayed certification of Prairie County returns was received by the secretary of the State Democratic Committee last Saturday.

Gunter has said the election would be contested. He indicated a circuit court suit might be filed in addition to an appeal to the state election board.

Houston voters have rejected integration.

The car overturned. Police said Norris apparently was killed instantly.

Norris, driving alone, had been to an American Legion reunion at De Witt.

Survivors include a sister and four brothers.

By Nelson Nye
Nelson Nye 1980 Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

THE STORY: Brett Fasken discovers a rustling frame-up engineered by one of his sisters, hunkering to drive the Thronas off cattle land. Brett has taken sides against his own sister Jo because of Lola Trone's sister of the small rancher.

CHAPTER XVII

Brett put a hand against Trone, pushing him back. "What's to be done of Lola if you get yourself killed. This is a time to be thinking, not going off half-cocked. There's a marshal at the Crossin."

"Stoker!" A meanness was in Trone's voice. "Jo's law, bought and paid for!"

Brett recalled Stoker from a long time back. From before Trone had ever come into this country, and said quietly, "We've still got a little time. I figure, if I want witnesses, more'n his own crew, likely try to get Plagler. He'll want him drawn into it. Anyhow it's Plagler, he's that up you got a chance to go on record."

Trone backed away. His lips

Helps Out Church

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A newly organized suburban United Lutheran church couldn't find other temporary quarters—so it will meet in a race track's clubhouse barroom.

The first services will be held at the Los Alamitos race track Sunday, Sept. 14.

"I admit this is highly unusual as a starting place for our church," said the Rev. H. Carl Roessler, pastor of the new congregation.

But it was also the race track facilities of nothing, Roessler said. He said 100 to 150 families have indicated interest in joining the church.

He stepped over to where he'd left his roan and screwed his own hull down. He led the animal to the trough and let him drink. "Got an extra rifle around here any place?" he asked Trone.

"One in the barn," Trone grumbled, and Brett went over there thinking it a kind of odd place to keep a weapon. Not too peculiar though, everything considered. He found it leaning against a wall, just inside and to the left of the runway where a man would have it handy if he suddenly found the need.

He didn't hear the girl come in. He might have knocked her down if he hadn't grabbed her.

It was a natural thing, but he wasn't prepared for the reaction he got at the feel of her body against him or for the look on her face, her sudden stiffening. He didn't do anything—didn't even try, but some reflection of the thought must have reached her, for when he let her go she very nearly struck him. When she whirled to run out of the place, she was stopped in mid-stride by Brett's flat words: "You came in here for somethin'. Get it."

He could see her agitation in the stiffness of her stance and the feeling that came out of her did not a thing to calm Brett.

She came around, narrowly watching; gauging her distance, she moved to pass him. Brett stepping back to give her room. But the combination of her distrust and the things to yeasty crurning inside him made him put out an arm, catching hold of her shoulder. "You can't shut yourself up like a fly in a bottle! every woman, Lola, a part of every woman, Lola, a part of bein' a woman. It's rich and good; don't be ashamed of it." Her face was still in the outside light but the shadow of her thoughts lay heavily across it. She was groping, still afraid of him, and her distrust was so strong it was almost rank. "There's nothing for you here." With a stifled sob she twisted free of him and ran.
